INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of Propellus

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Propellus (the Organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as at December 31, 2020, the statement of operations, changes in net assets and cash flows for the year ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Organization as at December 31, 2020, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Organization in accordance with ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

The Annual Report is expected to be made available to us after the date of auditor's report. If, based on the work we will perform on this other information, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact to those charged with governance.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Organization or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Organization's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Organization to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

VOLUNTEER CENTRE OF CALGARY (OPERATING AS PROPELLUS)
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2020

NOTE 1 ORGANIZATION AND PURPOSE

The Volunteer Centre of Calgary (Operating as Propellus) ("Propellus") was incorporated on August 11, 1971 under the Societies Act of Alberta and is exempt from income tax under Section 149 of the Income Tax Act. The purpose of Propellus is to provide leadership on issues relating to volunteering, to connect people to volunteer opportunities, to strengthen the ability of groups and organizations to support volunteers and achieve their mission, and to promote volunteerism in the community.

NOTE 2 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

These statements have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations (ASNPO).

Cash and Short-Term Deposits

Cash and short terms deposits consist of cash on hand, bank balances, deposits with a maturity of one year or less and other short term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash.

Long-Term Investments

Long term investments are comprised of marketable securities with a maturity of longer than one year and marketable securities with no stated maturity date that are intended to be held for longer than one year.

Property and Equipment

Purchased property and equipment is recorded at cost. Contributed property and equipment is recorded at the fair value on the date of contribution. The cost of development and acquisition of new software with a probable value exceeding its cost beyond one year is recorded at cost. Amortization is recorded once development is complete on a straight-line basis over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

| Computer software and equipment | 3 years |

Revenue Recognition

Propellus follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions.

Contributions which do not have externally imposed restrictions with respect to their use are reported as revenue in the period in which they are received, or receivable, if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured. The Board of Directors may from time to time set aside portions of these unrestricted contributions for specific purposes. These internally restricted contributions are included in revenue and subsequently set aside as internally restricted net assets.

Contributions received whose use is restricted by donor, statute or some other externally imposed conditions, are reported as deferred contributions related to operations and are recognized as revenue in the period in which the restrictions are fulfilled.

Endowment contributions are recognized as direct increases in net assets.

Membership fees and workshop fees are recognized in revenue when earned.

Unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sale financial assets are included directly in net assets or deferred contributions as appropriate, until the asset is removed from the statement of financial position. Unrealized gains and losses on held-for-trading financial assets are included in investment income and recognized as revenue in the statement of operations, deferred or reported directly in net assets, depending on the nature of any external restrictions imposed on the investment income. Restricted investment income is recognized as revenue in the year in which the related expenses are incurred. Other unrestricted investment income is recognized as revenue when earned.

VOLUNTEER CENTRE OF CALGARY (OPERATING AS PROPELLUS)
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Such estimates include, but are not limited to, providing for amortization of property and equipment. These estimates are reviewed periodically, and, as adjustments become necessary, they are recorded in the Statement of Operations in the period in which they become known.

Contributed Goods and Services

Due to the difficulty of determining their value, Propellus does not record the value of a) contributed services or b) contributed goods where the fair market value cannot be reasonably determined in the financial statements.

Financial Instruments

Measurement of financial instruments

Propellus initially measures its financial assets and liabilities at fair value, except for certain non-arm's length transactions.

Propellus subsequently measures all its financial assets and financial liabilities at amortized cost, except for investments in equity instruments and other securities that are quoted in an active market, which are measured at fair value. Changes in fair value are recognized in the Statement of Operations.

Financial assets measured at amortized cost include cash, restricted cash and contributions receivable.

Financial assets measured at fair value include short term deposits and long term investments.

Financial liabilities measured at amortized cost include accounts payable and accrued liabilities.

Impairment

Financial assets measured at cost are tested for impairment when there are indicators of impairment. The amount of the write-down is recognized in the Statement of Operations. The previously recognized impairment loss may be reversed to the extent of the improvement, directly or by adjusting the allowance account, provided it is no greater than the amount that would have been reported at the date of the reversal had the impairment not been recognized previously. The amount of the reversal is recognized in the Statement of Operations.

Transaction costs

Propellus recognizes its transaction costs in the Statement of Operations in the period incurred. However, financial instruments that will not be subsequently measured at fair value are adjusted by the transaction costs that are directly attributable to their obligation, issuance or assumption.

NOTE 3

RESTRICTED CASH

The use of $2 of Propellus cash is restricted pursuant to the Casino Licence agreement, in accordance with the provisions of the Gaming and Liquor Act (Alberta). Propellus is permitted to use these funds for administration, promotional activities, resource materials and to purchase equipment. Under the license agreement, the Centre is expected to use these funds within 24 months of their receipt, which is Nov 12, 2021.

VOLUNTEER CENTRE OF CALGARY (OPERATING AS PROPELLUS)
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 13 RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During the year $0 (2019 - $112) was paid to a company controlled by a Director for event management and payment processing services.

As at December 31, 2020 there is no balance resulting from these transactions on the balance sheet.

NOTE 14 TERMINATION BENEFITS

During the year Propellus paid termination benefits to former employees of $0 (2019 - $3,288).

NOTE 15 IMPACT OF COVID-19

On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization assessed the coronavirus outbreak (COVID-19) as a pandemic. This has had a significant impact on businesses through the restrictions put in place by the Canadian, provincial and municipal governments regarding travel, business operations and isolation/quarantine orders. At this time, it is unknown the extent of the impact the COVID-19 outbreak may have on Propellus as this will depend on future developments that are highly uncertain and that cannot be predicted with confidence. These uncertainties arise from the inability to predict the ultimate geographic spread of the disease, and the duration of the outbreak, including the duration of travel restrictions, business closures or disruptions, and quarantine/isolation measures that are currently, or may be put, in place by Canada and other countries to fight the virus.
